My dear Balasundaram Iyer,

Please refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. G.20654 of the 14th March 1919.

The returns of imports and exports of food grains through our ookads are bound to give an incorrect idea of the actual interchange of traffic. As the ookad establishment is maintained to prevent exports the ookad returns will necessarily show no exports (except authorised exports on the system of interchange agreed upon), while all casual imports will find a place in them. The quantities of food grains smuggled out of the State must in spite of the vigilance of the patrol and ookad staffs be appreciable, but these find no place in any returns. As the food situation is much easier in the Mysore State than in the adjoining British districts it may be presumed that more grains go out clandestinely (without record) than what comes in (and finds a place in our ookad returns), but our returns will give an impression that is just the opposite. I shall be glad if you will kindly place this aspect of the matter before Government and favour me with their orders.

Yours sincerely,

KM/MPH.
